

Reality Store (gr. 8) – Mar. 12

The Reality Store gives eighth grade students a hands-on look at real life budgeting. Each student is assigned a career, income, and family status, then calculates their net monthly income and creates a budget that includes housing, groceries, and other household expenses. This valuable experience helps students understand how quickly expenses add up and encourages thoughtful planning for their future.